

James Cordova

ENMR BOARD DIRECTOR

2009-2025

The Cooperative is mourning the passing of Board Director James “Bozo” Cordova. He was a devoted Board member who faithfully served Districts 9, 10, and 11 from April 18, 2009, until his passing on August 30, 2025.

A lifelong resident of Santa Rosa, James was deeply rooted in the community he called home and dedicated to ensuring its voice was heard at the Cooperative’s leadership table. He served the communities of White Lakes, El Valle, Anton Chico, Trementina, Mosquero, Conchas Dam, and Santa Rosa. His involvement reflected not only his commitment to progress but also his genuine care for the families, neighbors, and communities within his district.

James will be remembered for his service, dedication, and unwavering support of Plateau’s mission to connect people and strengthen communities. His contributions will leave a lasting impact, and he will be deeply missed by colleagues, members, and friends.

RACE WINNERS

It was an exciting time at this year's Plateau Great American Turtle Race & Youth Day. With 64 participants, the bragging rights go to Kasen Tate. He had the fastest turtle in Curry County. Our official Slow Poke title goes to Swayzee Kay Moore. Congratulations to all of our winners!

We'd like to thank the other sponsors: the Curry County Fair and Zia Radio Group. A special thanks to the Plateau employees and their families who took time out of their weekend to make this day successful.
